

RAUKANTEX IMPRESSIONS

TEXTURED TO MAKE AN IMPRESSION

With the growing demand for an attractive, natural appearance, the surface feel of the edgeband is becoming increasingly important too. With the RAUKANTEX impressions range, REHAU offers a unique variety of innovative material and lacquer embossing which is modelled on the different textures found in nature. Distinctive surface structures and delicate lacquer combinations turn edgebands into an experience to thrill the senses.

ADVANTAGES:

- Deceptively real imitation of wooden structures (see and feel the difference)
- Always a consistent appearance from the edgeband even when chamfered
