RAUVISIO noir

Monotonic matte surfaces blending elegance and craftsmanship with the modern contours of cosmopolitan life.

Conceived in Italy, the design centre of the world, RAUVISIO noir was curated with care and consideration to capture a sense of timeless elegance. Deep charcoal, crisp white, ocean blue and even emerald tones stimulate the imagination and the senses. A stroll at twilight, a candlelit dinner in New York or a journey of discovery through Casablanca – all these stories are the inspiration behind the RAUVISIO noir collection.

At REHAU we think about every aspect of design – only a perfectly matched combination allows furniture to achieve its full potential.

By using RAUKANTEX noble matt edgebands you can be sure that your chosen surfaces blend to form components with seamless integration – with the same quality in both appearance and feel. Add zero joint functionality for long-lasting looks and hygiene with RAUKANTEX pro. RAUVOLET noble matt ensures that the spaces you create are not only beautiful but also smart. Efficient storage units with a smooth closing mechanism are suitable for even the smallest spaces, while the noble matt surface has high appeal with its anti-fingerprint properties, velvety feel and scratch-resistant durability. A consistent continuation of our desire to create, 'the art of storage'.
