Your role

We are looking to recruit a Customs Analyst based at our Ross-on-Wye office. Your responsibilities will include:

- Checking shipment commodity codes and customs procedure declaration and information
- Accurate entering of declarations onto local customs software programme
- Carrying out customs clearance for intercompany imports/exports
- Working with company ERP system-SAP
- Working with third party software to complete customs declarations
- Speaking to customers, suppliers and internal departments to assist with enquiries
- Problem solving (e.g. delays) and proactively helping to manage the customs process
- Working closely with customs agents to complete declarations and resolve queries
- Working closely with various departments to ensure all relevant Customs declaration documents are correctly completed within the necessary timeframes

Your profile

You must be a self-starter, highly motivated and able to work as part of a team; able to communicate effectively, take the initiative, solve problems and make decisions. Flexible, adaptable and organised, your ability to prioritise with a high workload is also essential. You will also deliver excellent customer service; part of which is being exceptionally attentive to detail.

To be successful in this role, you will have experience in imports and exports. Logistics coordination and/or customs clearance experience is also desirable. MS Office skills are essential, as is the desire to learn new skills in order to adapt to changes.
